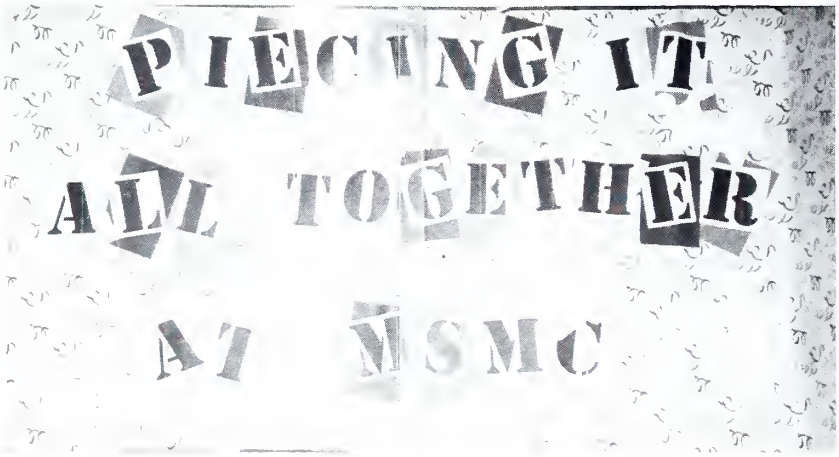
ORIENTATION



"On your right is the Administration Building ..." O-counselors show new freshmen around the Chalon campus.

Orientation 1997 took place at both Doheny and Chalon from August 22 through August 24. This was the first year that both campuses incorporated the same theme "Piecing It All Together." Using this theme, a variety of activities were held. The fun-filled weekend included orientation group meetings, a carnival, alumnae mugging, big sister activities, workshops galore, a dance, comedians, prayer groups, a tour of Santa Monica and "walking the loop." With all of these activities and more Doheny and Chalon freshmen, transfer, adult and re-entry students became part of MSMC.

Elizabeth Greenwood settles into her new room.

Can you pin the crown on Athena's head?

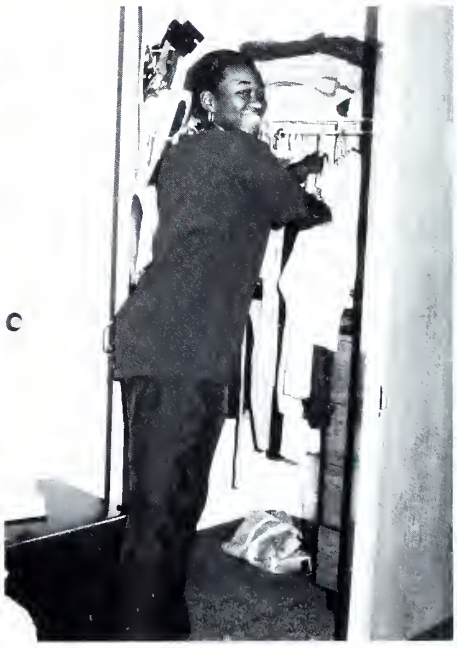
Student Telephone Services asks, "Do you really want a phone?"

"Are you sure I am not on the list?" "Just kidding, you're right here!"



Yes, We're finally out on our own!

Food! Glorious Food!

A father and daughter share a loving moment.

Sister Kathleen Kelley wishes the best of luck to the new students.

Daughters thank parents for all they have done with a blessing.

Big sisters give out flowers to the new students.

HORIZON'S DAY '97

Sonali Perera presents a worship on the 10/40 window and one person's decision to become a missionary to its people.

Are those smiles of excitement about Horizon's Day ... or cause there's no class for 3 hours?

On September 24, 1997, students from both MSMC campuses convened at Chalon to celebrate the 21st annual Horizon's Day. The theme for this year's program was "Walking Toward the Future: Leadership for Social Change." Students were invited to reflect upon everyday issues through participating in various seminars.

Boy! Art sure does have many forms!

Dr. Helen Astin is Professor of Higher Education and Associate Director of the Higher Research Institute at UCLA. In her address, Dr. Astin outlined her model for Leadership for Social Change, defining leadership as "a creative process, not a position, which results in positive social change" adding that everyone has the opportunity to be a leader. She defined effective leaders as those who have self-awareness, trust others, listen to others, and empower others. Following her outline, Dr. Astin held a question and answer session in which she clarified many concerns of students. Many other speakers which included Alejandra Ceja, MSMC graduate and Special Assistant to Congresswoman Lucille Roybal-Allard; Tony Massengale, Director of the Center for Civic Capacity-building; and Dr. Terri Mendoza, Director Administrative Credential/Master Program, MSMC, also spoke on their personal experiences in leadership.

HALLOWEEN

Mount students celebrated Halloween 1997 in a variety of spooky ways including: Pumpkin decorating, haunting Doheny, and dancing the night away.

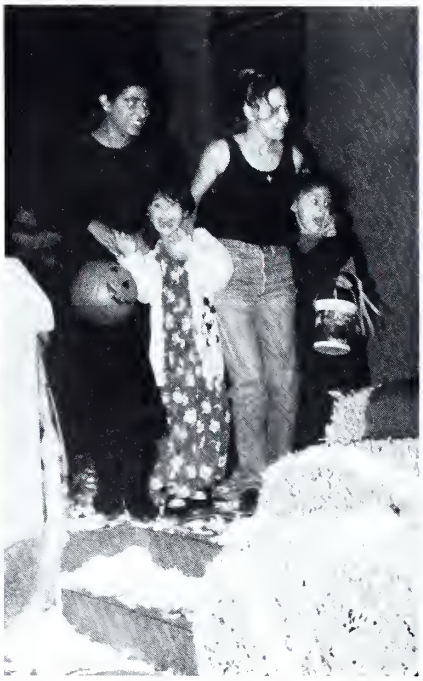
These good looking "Brides of Frankenstein" get ready to party at the "Fright Night" dance.

Dr. Mari Wadsworth and Agnes Zelus take their judging of the pumpkin decorating contest very seriously.

Denise, Hazel, and Tiffany, the three wicked witches of the West.

Doheny students practice their scary poses for the haunted maze.

"Stickem up cowboy 'n I'll give you your candy!"



"That was a fun! Let's do it again!"

Even the big kids get scared.

No trick here, just treats that are given out at the Child Development Center.

Little Jasmine has quite a fright and almost drops her candy.

WINTER BALL '97

Everyone checks to see that the cameras work before the night takes off.

Ruth and Maria give us all they got!

Couples get closer as the night goes on.

What better than dinner out on deck?

On November 14, 1997, the Chalon campus held their first annual winter ball entitled "Bon Voyage Winter Ball '97." The ball was held on the Dandeana Luxury Yacht. Not only was the yacht great, but the night could not have gone by any better. The weather was beautiful and everyone was there to have a memorable night. People danced, laughed, and kissed the night away.

DOHENY FATHER/DAUGHTER DANCE

Doheny Dads received boutonnieres, a special token of love from their daughters, when they checked in for the dance.

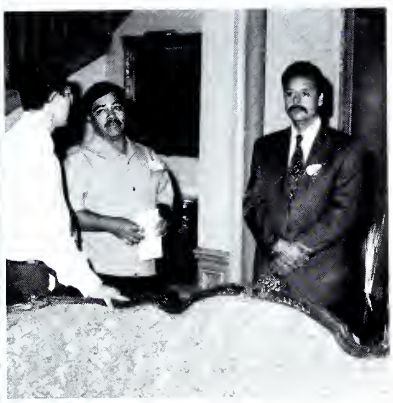
With father and grandfather in attendance, Monica Cuen shared her love for her family.

During the dinner, Diana Dominguez talked of her father's support and encouragement.

The Doheny Father/ Daughter Dance took place on Friday, November 21 in the Mansion. Daughters thanked their fathers for their support and love through the years. Many found it a touching and moving experience.

Dancing the night away Avigail Sanchez and her father.

Fathers and daughters listen attentively to the speakers.



This father and daughter take a minute from their meal to pose.

Sister Kathleen Kelly enjoyed the festivities at the dance as much as the students.

Daughters express their gratitude and happiness for their fathers.

CHRISTMAS 1997

"I know I've been a good boy this year Santa!"

Pam Monson and Sheryl Fayloga help decorate Christmas ornaments

Analu Masangkay proves that you're never too old to believe in Santa Claus

MSMC celebrates Christmas in a variety of ways. From sitting on Santa's lap, to decorating ornaments, or shopping at the Arts & Crafts Fair, life is never dull. We always get involved and make sure that our Christmas spirit shows through. MSMC knows how to make Christmas merry!

Need a Christmas present? You can't go wrong with handmade arts & crafts.

Cristina Solis, Donna Daigdigan & Daisy Mah are filled with the creative spirit.

"For the Love of You"

The moment we have all been waiting for....

February 13th was a night to remember at the Doheney Mansion. It was a night dancing and fun, pictures were taken, and a new queen was crowned.

Siena Day is a day of celebration in honor of St. Catherine of Siena. This year the theme of Siena Day focused on science and technology. Several of the day's activities celebrated the many ways in which women have contributed in these areas.

Stephanie DeBardelaben and Dr. Pauline Bennett from Hughes Space and Communications gave MSMC students words of encouragement and inspiration.

FITNESS AT THE MOUNT

HEAL THE BAY

SPR 85 students Kimberly Fine, Sara Edwards, Cassandra Hatton, Suzi Shroeder, Amalia Armigo, Jessica Hudson, Syedah Johnson, Alissa Connor, Elena Villa and Denise Matthews worked together in teams to clean up the beach.

Willow Bennett, Christine Ruzak, Breanna Ostenson and Millicent Ongaco received canvas reusable tote bags for their hard work in the "Heal the Bay" clean-up.

On the left a view of Topanga Beach before the Class of 2001 (an SPR 85 class project) participated in "Heal the Bay". The picture on the right shows the beach the cleanest it has ever been due to the hard work of all MSMC students involved in the project.

The freshmen class project this fall was "Heal the Bay" at Topanga Beach. On Saturday morning, September 20, students woke up early to participate in this volunteer effort. Students from all of the SPR 85 classes joined together to clean up the beach by picking up trash and recording their findings. When finished, students left the beach with a great sense of accomplishment and a better understanding of the meaning of community service.

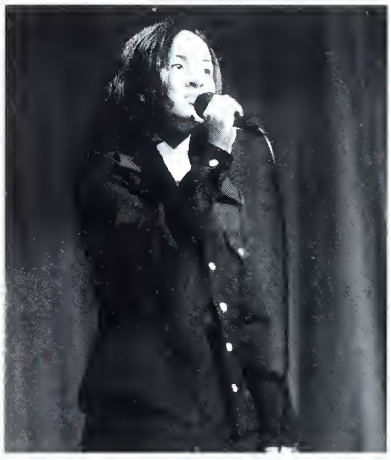
Hard at work scooping your favorites.

Family Day '98 was held on Saturday April 4. All those families and students that braved the cold and rain enjoyed the "Country Fair" theme which included games, a bake-off, food and family fun!

Multicultural Night

"A ship of dreams" was the theme for this year's Multicultural Night. What used to be Spring Sing is now a exposition of cultures from around the world. The cultures that were featured in this year's show were Hawaiian, African, Filipino, Portugese, French, Irish, and American. All of this year's performers made Multicultural Night a trip to remember.



A Ship of Dreams

Viewing Clockwise, starting at the top, African dancers dance in their native costumes. Next is the Hawaiian dance, as Sarah Ah Hee dances the hula. Below that picture, performers and spectators gather to share some laughs. Next all of the performers together sing the last song of the performance. Once again Suzi Schroeder performs, not dancing, she is playing the flute. Lastly, Pamela Monzon and fellow dancers do a traditional Filipino dance while balancing glasses of water on their heads.

FACULTY OF THE YEAR

Dr. Eric Stemp
Assistant Professor of Chemistry
Department of Physical Sciences and Mathematics

"It is an honor to receive this award. I believe that there is no job more important than being a teacher. And I am proud to be a member of a community that is so committed to excellence and service. I think it is obvious even to casual observers that the Mount is a very special place.

Mount students are a joy to work with. They are enthusiastic and bright, and are also not afraid to express themselves. I am often amazed by the obstacles they overcome in order to receive an education, and I admire them for their dedication to their studies and to making a difference in society. I feel blessed to have such terrific students and look forward to many more years of teaching at the Mount."

Thank you James for all your support. I could not of done it without your help.- Love, Dawn

Don't let your light flicker and fade because of everyday challenges and concerns. The world is large, and no one can illuminate it alone, but it is amazing how a single candle, burning brightly, can light so many others.

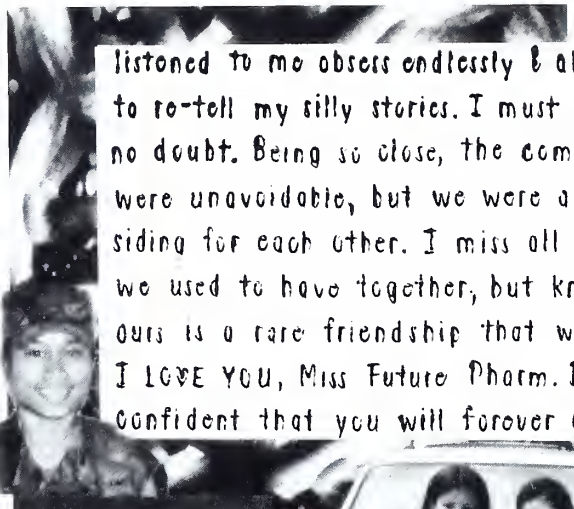
First and foremost I give thanks to God for all my blessings. To my parents Kelvin and Woldia Stewart, thank you for always supporting me; even when you didn't understand what I was up to. You taught me about hard work and sacrifices and I will always be grateful for that. To Sharon and Derrick, the best big sister and big brother in the whole world, thanks for always saving your little sister. For Michelle, my staunchest supporter, thanks for all the late night long distance phone calls and Marsha, my biggest fan you are two of the best cousins and friends in the world. To all my other best cousins near and far, your unconditional love has carried me in my best and worst moments. To all my aunts and uncles, you are all the strength in my foundation. To Guy, thanks you for listening to me whine about how much homework I had to do and for always telling me that I could, even when I didn't believe I could. Thank you for loving me through it all.

To all the many people at MSMC that have given me the tools to succeed especially: Dr. James Delahanty, my mentor, thank you for challenging me to do more than I knew I could. Professor Katherine Whitman, you are the most amazing example of a wonderful successful, and loving woman I know. Thank you for all my "life" lessons. Dr. Ronald Oard, thank you for teaching me how to analyze with my mind and not my emotions. To everyone in the Business Administration Department and in the Political Science Department thank you for all your support. Special thanks to all my supporters in college administration, especially Susan Fread, and everyone in ISAE.

Last but not least, to all my friends who have supported me, especially my girlfriends Jackie Johnson, Geraldine Crawford, Shannay Howard-Sampson and Angila Romious. You have taught me more about friendship and courage than I have ever known. Angila, thank you for all the late nights at Jerry's Deli, Denny's, the campus center and the second floor. To Keisha Reed-McClean my partner in crime, Business Law and Con. Law, thanks for all the memories. And Renee Ross, you are a true friend with many wonderful qualities. To you I leave the torch of the Political Science Department and all the wonderful journeys in Dr. D's classes.

DONNA MAE DAIGDIGAN: My best friend of 21+ years. From our mothers' wombs... through diapers, pre-school, St. Brendan, Immaculate Heart... up to now, we've proved inseparable. We share very little in common, yet complement each other so well. I am fortunate to have a friend as good as you in my life. You have been my strength all the times I failed myself – when I've felt drained & discouraged. You believed in me when I saw myself losing it.



You've listened to me obsess endlessly & allowed me to re-tell my silly stories. I must amuse you, no doubt. Being so close, the comparisons were unavoidable, but we were always there siding for each other. I miss all the time we used to have together, but know that ours is a rare friendship that will endure. I LOVE YOU, Miss Future Pharm. D., & am confident that you will forever conquer. ☺

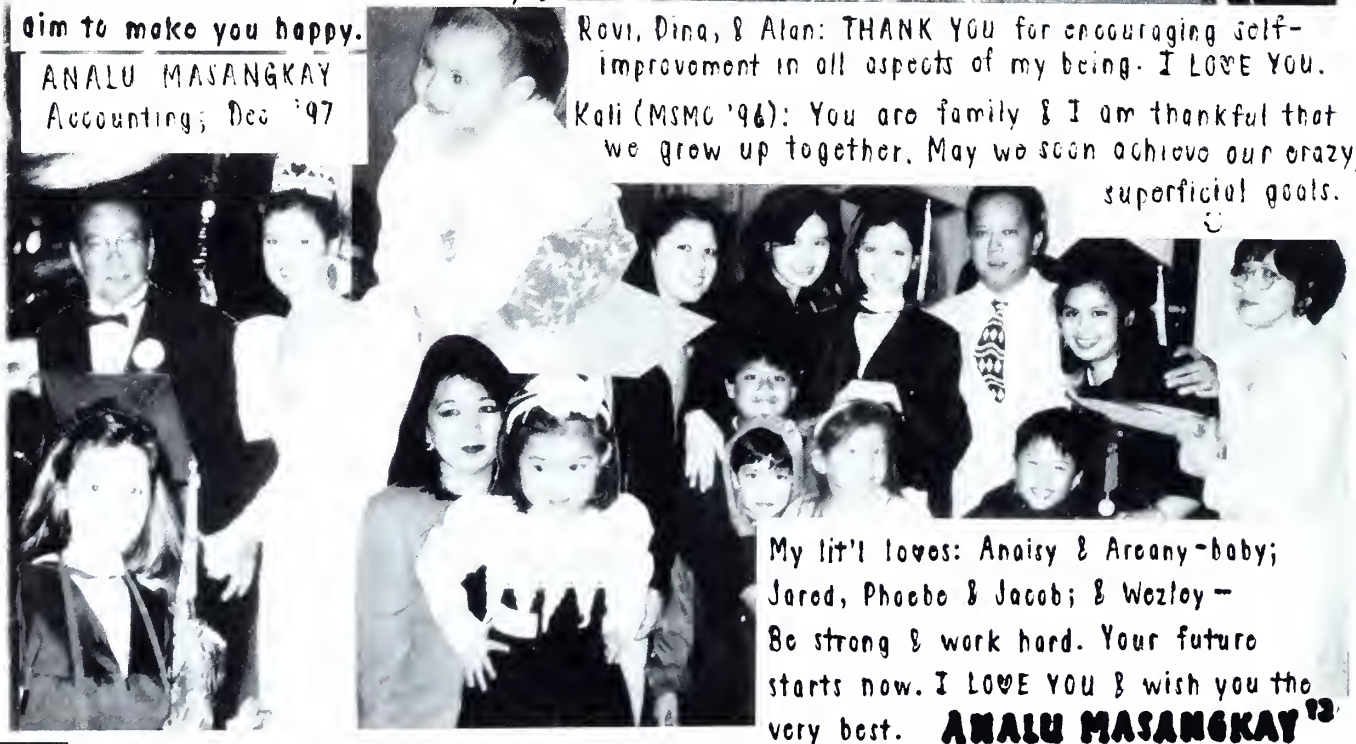
Evelyn, The long letters may have died down, but we won't let it mess w/ our friendship.

Dad & Mom: I THANK YOU for my life. It saddens me to see how distant we've become. I ask that you try to understand me & grant me the freedom that I've done without for far too long. You've done so much for me, but know that you cannot shelter me forever. It's time that I LIVE life without being condemned for the mistakes or decisions that I make. I LOVE YOU, & aim to make you happy.

ANALU MASANGKAY
Accounting; Dec '97

Rovi, Dina, & Alan: THANK YOU for encouraging self-improvement in all aspects of my being. I LOVE YOU.

Kali (MSMC '96): You are family & I am thankful that we grew up together. May we soon achieve our crazy, superficial goals. ☺



My lit'l loves: Anaisy & Areany-baby; Jarod, Phoebe & Jacob; & Wezley – Be strong & work hard. Your future starts now. I LOVE YOU & wish you the very best. ANALU MASANGKAY '97

CONGRATULATIONS GINA

Dearest daughter,

I'm so proud of you. I can't believe how fast these 4 years have passed. You are a model college student. You make it look so easy. It sometimes took you 2 hours to get home-how did you do it? You are my inspiration. I want to go back to college in the near future.

I wish you the best forever and all your dreams to come true. God bless you always and happiness in your upcoming wedding.

Remember, there's no good you can't achieve,--Love, Mom

Congratulations on all that you have accomplished. We are very proud of our older sister. We both wish you the best of luck and hope that you will find happiness with whatever the future has in store.

God bless and love always,--Isabelle & Stephen

Gina Mia,

THE BEAUTY OF FRIENDSHIP IS LIKE THE BEAUTY OF FLOWER ...
There are many kinds yet each has a unique beauty of offer.
There are friends who share our paths during certain stages of our lives, while other stay close to us year after year.
Some are vibrant admired for their strength, while others are delicate whispers of color - whose gentleness has a special place in our hearts.
We meet many different kinds of friends along life's journey.
Each adding color, joy and beauty to our days.
Thanks you for your friendship!
